Support for those grieving the death of a child

To whom it may concern,

Join friends and family at the Fifth Annual Sadie Rose Walk, Run, and Fun Day May 22. Headquarters will be at the College Street Pavilion 360 College Street Dayton. The approximately 3.1 mile Run/Walk course will take runners past scenic Silver Lake on gravel roads through rolling farmland. Runners will be eligible for generous prizes!

Additional raffle purchase opportunities, complimentary post-race refreshments with additional options to purchase food, children's activities.

Pre-register by May 6 to guarantee your t-shirt. Cost is $20 or $25 after May 6 or race day.

Families and teams of four or more is $18 per person—no matter when you register.

We'd love to have friends groups, civic groups, entire families, multiple generations, youth groups, Sunday school classes and entire congregations join us! You're encouraged to participate in memory of a child, sibling, friend, grandchild, niece, nephew, any child, of any age, that has had an impact in your life. Goofy costumes and team-themes are welcome. Register online at www.sadierosefoundation.org.

The Sadie Rose Foundation, a non-profit organization in Dayton, offers non-clinical peer support for those grieving the death of a child and advocates for grief awareness and education. We have connected with more than 300 families in our local community since our founding in 2008. We offer multiple support groups, one-on-one peer support and lay counseling, and a variety of other services as well as special annual remembrance ceremonies throughout the year.
